1. All classes of mechanics, chauffeurs, gunsmiths, w/t operators, photographers, and parachutists of the 1926 class have been retained in the Bulgarian Air Force. Officially they are described as voluntary hired labor.
2. This measure is also apparently being applied by other military units, as it is reported from Razgrad that all specialists of the 1926 class have been retained on a similar basis by the headquarters of the Bulgarian Anti-tank Regiment in that city.
